

ALANDES “Along the Andes” is a project where each label is driven by a concept that represents absolute freedom, a Laissez Faire winemaking philosophy that extends across a vast territory without borders.

A range of high altitude vineyards, of those unique and charming sites that inspire us to try to capture their essence.

ALANDES represents our intention to create wines from grapes sourced from several spots along the Andes Mountains.