

THE PHOENICIAN

Karim Mussi, of Lebanese origin, better known as “El Turco” or also THE PHOENICIAN, is a great lover of Malbecs and blends and created these wines with grapes from our paradise called La Consulta, in the Uco Valley, seeking to express the utmost of these terroirs and their varieties.

“For me, La Consulta is more than just an outstanding winemaking region. In addition to the proven quality of the grapes planted here, for me its history is essential, as it is a place with a long wine-growing tradition and a unique energy”.
